

GOSDEN GRADUATE

INTERN AT NOTCUTTS GARDEN CENTRE

“My numeracy skills help me to know how to give change, put money through the till and check customer’s receipts.”

“I have had till training and now feel more confident on the tills. My next step is to get trained up on how to do refunds .”

“I have been doing my Internship through Guildford College. I also completed an Employability Course and worked on my Numeracy and Literacy skill at college.”

“ If I have had a busy day I like going home and listening to music and chatting to my Nan.”

“I have developed my speaking and listening skills. It is so important to be polite and patient with customers.”
