

Discussion Points

30 questions to inspire inquisitive minds and dynamic debates.

Discussion Points

These slides contain 30 child friendly, thought-provoking questions about life.

You could use them as stimuli for class debates, philosophy circles, morning tasks, persuasive writing activities and much more.

The key to really thinking about each of these questions is
WHY?

Encourage your children to justify their answers.

Are computer games good for us?

Are school uniforms a good idea?

Is it right for countries to spend money on sending people into space when so many people live in poverty on Earth?

Should school holidays be made shorter so that we can spend more time learning in school?

What is important about parents or carers?

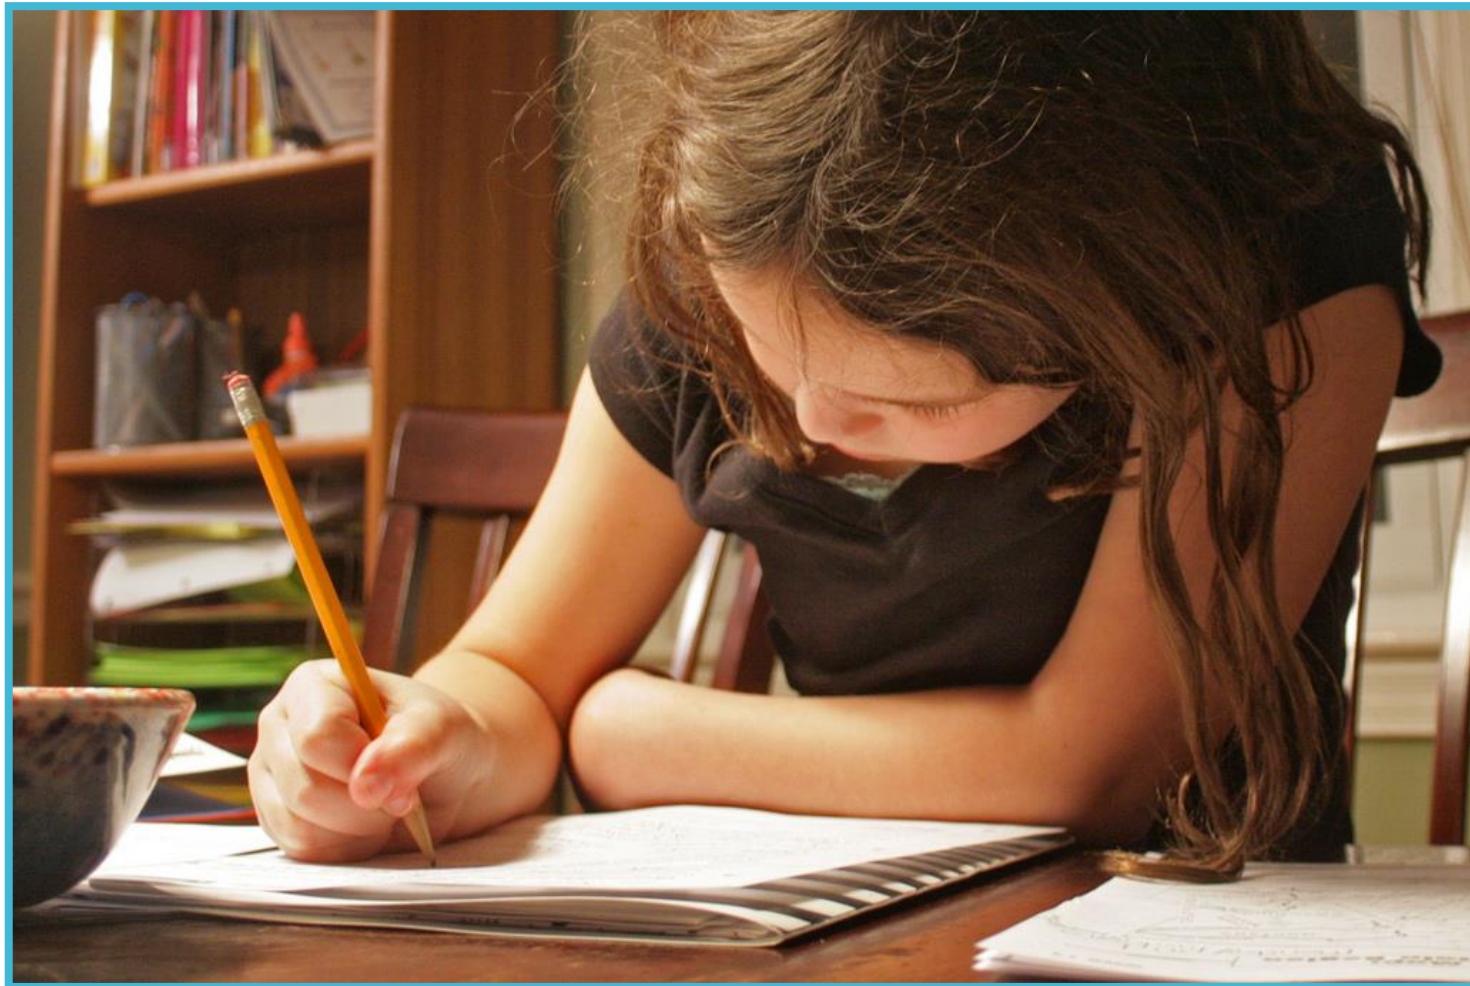

Do you think it is possible for two people to be exactly the same?

When is the best time to do homework?

Is it fun being old?

What is anger?

Is God still important in today's world?

One day, will computers replace teachers?

Is it easier to help people if you are rich?

Is it ok to keep animals in zoos?

What makes a good friend?

Is it our job to look after the environment?

Is it more important to respect yourself or other people?

When did time begin?

Is night time more scary than the day time?

If God exists, what do you think God's plan for the world is?

What is the greatest special power?

Why do people wear make-up?

What makes us happy?

If animals could speak,
what would they say about humans?

Why do people commit crimes?

How do we know the difference between right and wrong?

Is good more powerful than evil?

Is it ok to kill animals to eat them?

Does having more things make us happier?

Are exams and tests helpful?

THE END